Get published in The Titan Lantern, an art and literary magazine for students, faculty and staff on the Cocoa Campus

The Titan Lantern

Eastern Florida State College Cocoa Campus’s online visual and literary arts e-zine, published biannually, is now accepting submissions from EFSC’s students, staff, and faculty. Entered works will be rated by a panel of faculty judges.

Deadline for the Fall 2015 Issue is November 30.

Email up to three attachments of your work with the following information to Editor Carol Harvest at harvestc@easternflorida.edu

Contributors - please include the following with your submission:
- Title and brief description of each entry
- Category: Prose, poetry, visual art, photography
- Your name, B#, whether you’re student, faculty, staff
- Email address and phone number
- Brief bio and motivation for creating each piece
- The following statement with your electronic signature: This submission is my own original, unpublished work.

Categories
- Prose: 1000 Words or less - MS Word
- Poetry: 40 lines or less – MS Word
- Visual Art: Indicate medium used and size of work
- Photography: May not be altered on a computer except to adjust normal settings and to resize images.

Participants may contribute in all four categories, but only three contributions per category please.